

“Character-Inspired Art” Rubric

Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian Wiki Response

	3- Excellent/Yes	2- Good	1- Needs Improvement/No
Art Selection	Student chose or created a unique and appropriate piece of art to relate with a character, scene, or theme from the novel.	N/A	Student chose or created an inappropriate or offensive piece of art to relate with a character, scene, or theme from the novel.
Title of Artwork and Artist	The title of the piece of artwork and artist are posted.		The title of the piece of artwork and artist are posted.
Written Reflection	Student wrote an excellent description of how the piece of art symbolizes a character or scene in the novel. A thorough explanation of the student’s reasoning for choosing/creating the piece art is present.	Student wrote an average description of how the piece of art symbolizes a character or scene in the novel. An average explanation of the student’s reasoning for choosing/creating the piece of art is present.	Student did not write a clear or complete description of how the piece of art symbolizes a character or scene in the novel. Little or no explanation was given for choosing/creating the piece of art.
Word Choice, Sentence Fluency, and Conventions	Student used descriptive words, properly organized sentences, and used correct punctuation and grammar in his or her written reflection.	Student occasionally used descriptive words, sentences were organized for the most part, and little or no punctuation or grammar errors in his or her written reflection.	Student did not use descriptive words, sentences were unorganized, and many punctuation and grammar errors were present in his or her written reflection.